10K Run Through History

Enjoy the privilege of running through Civil War history. The National Park Service allows our runners to run through the Spotsylvania Courthouse. Battlefield. We are the only race in the area to run through a national park!

LOCATION:

Spotsylvania Courthouse Village Pavilion,
Spotsylvania County Office Building 9019 Old
Battlefield Blvd, Spotsylvania, Va. 22553

PARKING:

There will be plenty of available parking around county building.

START TIME:

8 a.m.

COURSE:

The course is a one loop, runners meet at the Spotsylvania Courthouse Village Pavilion. The start line is on Brock Road, Northbound, at Old Battlefield intersection. The race begins with a rolling start heading towards then crossing over the 208 bypass. Continuing on Brock Rd then turning on to Grant Drive into the Spotsylvania Courthouse Battlefield. The course follows the battlefield road taking you around Bloody Angle, Mule Shoe, the Harrison and McCoull farms, Heth's Salient and Burnside battle locations and out of the park on Fredericksburg Road. Once you are out of the battlefield you turn right onto Courthouse Road (Rte. 208) and then a left onto Old Battlefield Blvd back to the pavilion. All along the way you will see cannons and historical markers. Enjoy the history!
